Schools interested to host this show are kindly requested to follow the link on <http://www.kreattivita.org/en/event/babydaddy-school-tour-6/>. The production is about 1 hour 15 minutes long.

Tickets are free of charge subject to booking.

On receiving the application, a member from the production team will call to visit your hall and make sure the show can be performed at your school.

Synopsis:

The storyline follows the story of Matt – a seventeen-year old, popular and smart, cocky at times, but likeable. He dreams of becoming a world-class photographer, but right now all that matters is receiving his exam results and being promoted to second year sixth form, after which he's all set to enjoy what promises to be the summer of his dreams.

However, on the day his results are due, he lands another piece of information: his ex-girlfriend is pregnant. Matt's world collapses in a matter of seconds – what happens now? The next nine months will prove challenging on a number of levels – Matt must now face his family and friends, his ex-girlfriend, a great deal of multitasking and ultimately...parenthood!

The theatre play deals with the pressures of balancing teen-life and life-long dreams with the colossal responsibility of early parenthood.

#babydaddy is part of Spazju Kreattiv development programme which can be found on <http://www.kreattivita.org/en/events/category/development/photo/>. Those interested can apply for a variety of activities designed especially for schools by collaborating creatives.

Booking for each activity is through an online form available at the end of each page. In the event page you will find all the required information including dates and times, certification and duration.

Schools are to email spazju@kreattivita.org for further information.
